Learn Lots. Be Creative. Make Friends. Build Relationships.

Boughton Law Corporation is big enough to offer you excellent training facilities and support as well as broad exposure to many different areas of practice. At the same time, you will not get lost in the shuffle - we are small enough that you will know everyone very quickly, and we will get to know you.

Our practice focuses on aboriginal law, administrative law, alternative dispute resolution, civil litigation, corporate, commercial real estate, commercial leasing, banking, bankruptcy and insolvency, cross border, employment law, environmental law, franchising, intellectual property, securities, tax, transportation, wills, estates and trusts.

What we look for. Integrity, common sense, intelligence, maturity, initiative, honesty, diversity of interest and an interesting background, good judgment, an ability to get along and work well with others, ambition, flexibility, perseverance and a sense of humour.
