

Corporate Governance

About this Area of Expertise

We are experienced in counselling directors, boards of directors, senior executives and investors on corporate governance matters, including board and committee structures and procedures, director and officer liability, fiduciary duties, compensation, pension and incentive programs, investor relations, shareholder disputes and remedies, stock exchange and securities compliance requirements, investor relations and management succession.

We also regularly advise on mergers, acquisitions, corporate reorganizations, financings, equity investments, domestic and international business structures, cross-border transactions and other corporate business agreements, procedures and documentation.
