

Motor Vehicle

About this Area of Expertise

We have a long history of experience in representing members of the trucking industry, including commercial motor carriers, freight forwarders, cargo providers and insurance interests. Our experience includes drafting and review of documents such as bills of lading, waybills and other contractual documents relating to carriage, as well as representation before both the Courts and the Motor Carrier Commission.

Key Contacts

Roger Watts