

Real Estate + Commercial Leasing

About This Area of Practice

We have extensive experience in all aspects of real estate transactions, representing vendors and purchasers, landlords and tenants, lenders and developers and other parties in all manner of major commercial acquisitions and developments.

We also advise clients involved in the real estate field, including government and Crown agencies, public and private corporations of all sizes and other entities involved in real estate investments.

In addition, we have considerable expertise in structuring cross-border and offshore transactions, including on-resident investment in Canadian real estate.
